

Ring20 Research and Support UK 2022 Family Conference

- After the huge success of the inaugural 'Ring20 Family Conference' in 2017, Allison Watson is proud to invite you to become a sponsor for the next Family Conference (Sept 2022) and benefit from this truly inspirational cause
- Allison has over 15 years of experience in the field of rare diseases and is extremely happy to be able to reach out to many more families and specialists through this unique event
- With an international audience which has grown over a number of years, Ring20 can provide the support and knowledge to make a positive difference for many families living with someone with r(20) syndrome.
- Allison plays a key role in a number of leading organisations seeking improved treatments for rare diseases, and most importantly providing much needed support to the families. Allison is a Ring 20 speaker at company events providing consultation about e.g. ERNs, trials, epilepsies, opinions on policy
- This event will be accessible across the world and we warmly welcome an international audience, in-person and online
- We are honoured to be able to present specialists in a number of fields, a beneficial resource in providing the latest advice and guidance
- As well as sharing invaluable knowledge our guest speakers will provide updates on research in r(20) syndrome
- The main conference program will comprise;
 - Guest speakers including Paediatric Neurologists, Neurologists, Epilepsy Specialist Nurses, Geneticists
 - New advances and opportunities in research
 - Supported case studies from individuals/families
 - Open panel discussions on new/emerging treatments
- A range of exhibitors will be invited e.g. epilepsy treatment companies, companies offering support services/devices
- Sponsors will be promoted on all our social media platforms, website and become extremely well known among families and specialists
- Sponsors will get 800mm x 2000mm printed pop up banner displayed at key areas for the duration of the event - number of banners depends on sponsorship package - yours to keep afterwards
